

What are the top 10 Jobs if you like work in Animal Care?

Veterinary Technician

Is responsible for the welfare of animals used for research in Universities and Laboratories

Kennel Worker

Is responsible for the welfare of cats and dogs in kennels, usually while owners are on holiday.

Veterinary Nurse

Work alongside vets providing nursing care for sick and injured animals

Dog Groomer

Job includes shampoo, trim and groom dog's coats in order to keep them in good condition

Horse Groom

To look after the well-being of horses in their care, making sure that they are happy and healthy

Veterinary surgeon

Look after the health and well-being of animals, domestic, farm and zoo animals.

Farrier

Is responsible for the foot care of horses, fitting shoes, trimming and caring for the horse's hooves

Habitat Specialist

Designing suitable environments for zoo and safari park animals that mimic the natural habitat in the wild

Marine Ecologist

Study the relationship between flora and fauna and the environment so they can be protected

Forensic
Entomologist

Analyse the life cycle of insects found in victim's bodies for clues as to their death