

What are the top 10 Jobs if you like work in Business Studies?

Business Analyst

Work within an organisation to manage change and plan for the future.

Banking

Dealing with customer inquiries such as account balances, charges, loans and savings.

Management Consultant

provide advice and expertise to develop any specialist skills that it may be lacking.

Insurance Underwriter

Are responsible for deciding whether insurance applications should be accepted or not.

Project management

The responsibility to deliver projects on time and in budget, by planning and organising resources and people.

Corporate Finance

Provide businesses with financial services, advising them on issues like buying or merging with other businesses

Sales Marketing

Focus on selling a product or service, or on raising awareness of an issue that affects the public.

Stock broker

Support individuals or institutions (clients) to make informed decisions on investing in the right stocks and markets at the right time

Logistics and distribution

Organise the storage and distribution of goods

Civil service
Administrators

Work for government departments (formulating policies) and agencies (delivering services).