

Work with individuals and families who need support and help.

Help people with difficulties to carry out a range of daily activities.

Offer support with everyday tasks to manage at home or in a centre

Trained to prevent, diagnose and treat illnesses, diseases, disorders and injuries.

Help people with learning disabilities lead fulfilling lives to be independent.

Care for and support mothers, new babies and family during pregnancy and birth

Trained to care for ill and injured people, the aged or disabled.

Respond to emergency calls and are the first healthcare staff on the scene.

Help children to overcome difficult life experiences to explore their feelings through play.

Work with young people helping them learn and grow to play a positive role in the community.