

What are the top 10 Jobs if you like Languages?

Finance

working for companies with a lot of financial business abroad

Language services

translation, interpreting or advising companies with customers from another country

Pharmaceuticals

sales and marketing of drugs including research and development

Media

working on multilingual versions of websites for different audiences

Engineering and Technology

managing projects in other countries, helping people on a helpdesk, technical sales to overseas markets

Social and civil services

providing language support at local health centres

Customer support services in any business with overseas customers supporting communication

Transport and distribution responsible for delivering goods to or receiving from other countries

Education

teaching in any sector from primary to university

Travel and tourism

with a holiday company as a guide or researcher, in hotels in customer support