

STUDENT LIFE - ACCOMMODATION

There are so many different options available at university in terms of accommodation. The best way to find out what will suit you is to have a look around the different choices.

We are going to have a look at what you need to consider if you choose to move into University Halls of Residence.

Use this link to a virtual open day to explore the different accommodations on offer and answer the questions below.

1. Would you prefer catered or self-catered?
2. Would you prefer to share a house/flat with lots of people or fewer people? Some accommodation options may be a shared floor with 20 people where as some will be a shared house with 3!
3. Would you prefer to live on campus or away from campus?
4. Would you like your own En Suite bathroom or are you comfortable sharing one?
5. Are there any other facilities that you would prefer your accommodation to have?
