

Choosing a University

We've gotten through all the rest of the big decisions, and now this. It can be difficult to decide what University you want to attend, but by figuring out what your priorities are you know exactly what your focuses are and can go research them!

Most Important
Least Important

- Distance from home
- Cost of living
- Sense of community
- Bursaries and scholarships
- Accommodation
- Atmosphere/ 'Feel'
- Where friends are going
- Sports facilities
- City Life
- Transport links
- Pastoral care
- Campus or City University
- Students' Union clubs and societies
- Social activities
- Job prospects
- Academic reputation
- Support for students with additional needs

